Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following documents:

D1: US-B1-6 219 697 (LING SALIM ET AL) 17 April 2001 (2001-04-17)

D2: US-A-6 122 287 (LOEBBERT ACHIM ET AL) 19 September 2000 (2000-09-19)

1. Although independet claim 1 is not clear (see Item 8), the present application does not seem to meet the criteria of Article 33(1) PCT, because the subject-matter of claim 1 is not new in the sense of Article 33(2) PCT.

The document D1 discloses (the references in parentheses applying to this document):

A system for providing data communication between modules connected through port connectors (column 1, lines 21-22: "interconnects ... modules"), wherein said modules are adapted to communicate a data package (fig. 7c) comprising in a layered structure a physical layer (column 1, lines 57-67) comprising a first and second segment for encapsulating other layers in said package (fig. 7c, "CPH", "IP packet"), a data link layer comprising a first header with a payload type (fig. 7c: "protocol_type") and a second headr field for a data link layer version (fig.7c, "pn-version"), and a network/transport layer comprising athird header for a transmitting modules address (fig. 7c, ip_source_address), a fourth header field for a length of said data package (fig. 7c, ip_total_length) and data payload (fig. 7c ip_data).

- 2. The same reasoning applies, mutatis mutandis, to the subject-matter of the corresponding independent claims 18 and 24-27 which therefore are also considered not new.
- Dependent claims 2-17 and 19-23 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty, see document D1 and the corresponding passages cited in the search report.

Re Item VIII

Independent Claims 1, 18 and 24-27 are not clear (Article 6 PCT), because it is not defined how the "first and second segments" are limited from each other, i.e. which fields are in which segments. Furthermore, to define segments alone does not provide a technical effect.

Further it is unclear if the "transmitting module's address" is the source or destination address.

The "lenght of said data package" seems to include all the layer headers in the total length. It is not clear how this information would be provided in the network layer as layers usually give information about layers above and not below.

The whole layout of claim 1 does not suggest any difference to the standard OSI layer model. If such difference exist, it should be reflected in the correct two part form of the claim.
